N2Y, INC.® ADDS A TRANSITION BAND TO THE UNIQUE LEARNING SYSTEM CURRICULUM

Wednesday, December 2, 2009 N2Y announces the addition of a fifth band to the ULS curriculum! The brand new Transition Band joins the other four bands, completing the set for comprehensive coverage of grades Kindergarten through Transition. The main goal of the transition curriculum is to create a realistic atmosphere of skill learning that will be needed when exiting the school setting, entering the work setting and living with optimal independence. Intended for students who are beyond the 12th grade year or who have met high school requirements, the Unique Learning System Transition Program offers programming options and materials to support educators who are addressing transition training for older students. If interested in learning more about this exciting addition to the ULS curriculum, please visit us on the web or give us a call.

N2Y, Inc.® is a family-run, online education publishing company started by Jacquie Clark, a speech-language pathologist with over 30 years experience in and out of the classroom. N2Y, Inc.® has grown to include a weekly newspaper, online curriculum and dynamic symbol set. The New-2-You current events newspaper utilizes concise, symbol-supported text to deliver current events news to a population previously denied this information. The Unique Learning System is the only comprehensive Web-based and standards-based curriculum specifically designed for special learners. Recently launched SymbolStix ONLINE, the newest and most dynamic symbol set ever developed. The set is used exclusively throughout the News-2-You newspaper and the Unique curriculum.

The N2Y, Inc.® products are all available on the Web, allowing thousands of global subscribers easy access to all the published content and materials.
